STAWELL GIFT POWERED UP BY POWERCOR

Australia's most prestigious professional foot race, the Stawell Gift, has a new naming rights partner with Powercor signing on to a five-year deal from 2021.

Minister for Tourism, Sport and Major Events Martin Pakula today confirmed the long-term agreement as preparations continue for the return of iconic drawcard to Central Park, Stawell on 3-5 April 2021.

The Powercor Stawell Gift will be run and won for the 139th time in 2021 after the event was cancelled this year due to the coronavirus pandemic.

An iconic Easter tradition, the three days of competition have across the years welcomed some of the most recognised names in international athletics including Sydney 2000 gold medallist Catherine Freeman, renowned sprinters Asafa Powell and Maurice Greene and middle-distance charge Craig Mottram.

The Andrews Labor Government has provided $1.22million across four years to the Stawell Gift, ensuring the growth of the iconic central Victorian athletics carnival.

Equal prize money for men and women has been maintained and a broadcast agreement with the Seven Network confirmed, enticing commercial interest in the foot race from Powercor.

In August 2020, a new board of management that included commercial and marketing expertise was formed, setting the Stawell Gift on track for a vibrant event and welcoming thousands of people to the Grampians region each year.

Powercor is Australia's leading rural electricity distribution network supplying power to almost 1 million households and businesses in western Victoria including Melbourne's western suburbs.
