

Statement from the Hon Jacinta Allan MP – Premier of Victoria

Wednesday, 3 December 2025

ADULT TIME WILL BE LAW - PROTESTS WON'T DETER US

Today in Parliament, a member of the public protesting against our Adult Time for Violent Crime laws disrupted Question Time.

They allegedly glued themselves to the furniture inside the public gallery.

Violent crime is serious. Stunts like these certainly aren't. They will not deter us one bit.

I acknowledge people have different views, but I am listening to victims of crime – that's why we're pushing ahead with Adult Time for Violent Crime, so the chance of jail is stronger, and sentences are longer.

We want Adult Time for Violent Crime in place as soon as possible.

MPs won't be leaving Parliament this week until our Bill passes.

At this point, the one thing stopping Adult Time becoming law is Jess Wilson and the Liberals – who could still block it or delay it.
