MORE FOOD ON THE TABLE FOR FAMILIES

More families than ever are worried about where their next meal is coming from.

That's why the Victorian Budget 2026/27 delivers $8.5 million to strengthen food security.

Funding will deliver another round of the Community Food Security Program for community and volunteer organisations.

It will also boost support for the Co-ordination Fund for large-scale food relief organisations.

This is in addition to the $2.7 million immediate relief announced in April to boost support for food relief.

The Liberals have a $13 billion Budget black hole and no plan for families doing it tough.

Labor has new solutions for Victorian families who need them.

Quotes attributable to Minister for Carers and Volunteers Luba Grigorovitch

"Food relief is a lifeline – Labor is making sure it reaches the families who need it most."

"We're backing community organisations because no Victorian family should go hungry."
