THREE MILLION VICTORIANS GET 20% OFF REGO

More than three million Victorians have now applied for 20 per cent off their rego.

That's three million families getting real help right now – because Labor backs them.

Payments are reaching Victorians bank accounts quickly.

It's all about putting money back in the pockets of Victorians while fuel prices remain high.

Here's how it works:

- A driver with one car gets up to $186 back
- A family with two cars gets up to $372 back
- You get the full rebate whether you pay yearly or in instalments
- Applications close 31 July 2026. Two months to claim what's yours.

To be eligible for the rebate, Victorians need to have paid their registration between 1 July 2025 and 30 June 2026 for a light vehicle for personal use.

You can claim for up to two vehicles in your name.

Jess Wilson's Liberals haven't backed this because they don't stand with Victorians.
